Dear Candidate

I am delighted that you are considering joining the Central England Law Centre team. This recruitment pack includes all the information you will need to make your application and also to provide you with some information about the Law Centre. You can also find more information about the work of the Law Centre on our website www.centralenglandlc.org.uk

You will be joining us at an exciting point in our journey. As we enter the second half of our five-year strategy, we are reflecting on what we have achieved so far while focusing on the opportunities and challenges ahead. This role will play a key part in shaping that next chapter. In this pack, you will find an infographic explaining our vision and the three strands of our strategy: people, partnerships, and policy.

Working at the Law Centre is a brilliant opportunity to not only use your existing skills and experience but gives you an opportunity to develop your skills further with our clients, our partners and being involved with policy work. Working at Central England Law Centre is immensely rewarding and you will work with a team of dedicated colleagues.

We provide training and support and a comprehensive induction programme to help you settle into your role. Our terms and conditions ensure that you have a good work life balance, company sick pay after a qualifying period, enhanced maternity leave pay, excellent annual leave allowance and a flexible approach to staff working in general.

We value diversity and warmly encourage applications from disabled and LGBTQIA+ people, candidates who share lived experience with our clients, and people from black, asian, and minority communities. If you require any adjustments to assist you in making your application or at interview (if you are shortlisted) please let us know. We want to make sure that everyone has an equal opportunity to apply for our roles.
We look forward to receiving your application. For more information please contact recruitment@celc.org.uk

Best wishes
Elayne Hill
Chief Executive

About Central England Law Centre

A fairer, more just society in which an understanding of rights and their power is embedded within communities.

Central England Law Centre is the UK's largest Law Centre. Our size enables us to provide legal expertise across eight different areas of social welfare law including: discrimination; employment; health and social care; housing; immigration and asylum; public law; and welfare benefits. This means that we can offer services that can address all of the interconnected problems people face in their everyday lives.

Our services are rooted in the communities we serve and we are an organisation that uses its legal expertise to improve the lives of those who are often vulnerable and socially excluded due to poverty, illness or disability.

The Law Centre is a charity employing solicitors and advice workers. We currently employ 75+ people across our two offices in Coventry and Birmingham. We receive funding from a variety of Foundations and Trust Funds and also from Coventry City Council for our work in Coventry. We hold a legal aid contract with the Legal Aid Agency in housing, community care, public law, family, welfare benefits (in the Upper Tribunal), immigration and asylum. We offer specialist advice, representation and advocacy and our aim is to use the law to seek change. We take on test cases that may well have an impact beyond the actual case fought. As well as our core advice and legal casework service we deliver a range of projects in partnership. We currently have projects for example with local universities, women's organisations, homeless charities, refugee support organisations and a GP surgery.

The Law Centre is a member of the national Law Centres Network. It is governed by a board of trustees, who are the Directors of Central England Law Centre - a company limited by guarantee. The Trustees meet monthly to monitor the Law Centre's work and give guidance on policy and direction. The Law Centre employs a chief executive officer (CEO), solicitors, caseworkers, admin and reception staff. Staff are organised into teams with a team head to lead and manage them. The CEO is responsible to the Trustees for the running of the Law Centre and advises them on policy issues. Each team covers one or two areas of law. Staff generally work in only one team but we recognise that many cases cross boundaries and staff therefore need to be able to work closely with other teams where their expertise are required. You can find out more about the Law Centre by looking at our website www.centralenglandlc.org.uk

Embedding rights in the community

Central England Law Centre

In 2022 the law centre refreshed its organisational strategy, developed with staff and trustees following the Covid-19 pandemic and cost-of-living crisis. Our rights in the community strategy sets out our vision of a fairer, more just society in which an understanding of rights and their power is embedded within communities.

The key driver for our approach and the biggest volume of our activity will always be our work with individuals to ensure more people are protected by their rights and to build their understanding of where they can use legal rights to protect themselves in the future.

We work alongside our strategic partners so that we can better understand the challenges and issues that local communities face. We share our legal expertise and in close partnerships with other community-focused services we help to place legal rights at the heart of their work and to activate a rights-based approach in their support.

We build alliances with organisations, pooling evidence of service gaps and patterns in clients' needs and using it as the basis of our activity and collaborative campaigns.

We take strategic action at a local, regional and national level to influence change in policy and legislation, ranging from strategic litigation, membership of local statutory steering groups, boards and advisory bodies through to the work of the Strategic Public Law Clinic, work on national campaigns and responding to calls for evidence.
